

Weston Museum Volunteer Role Description

Role Title:	Writing and Research Volunteer
Role Summary:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To create succinct and accessible general information guides by updating existing ones and conducting additional research into Weston's past. • To create informative written pieces that are suitable for blog posts, articles, social media posts and press releases.
Role Description:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To provide up to date and multi-purpose resources that can be used to support the museum. • To provide information to the local community via print, digital and media outlets.
When:	Mainly home based with access to further resources. Meet once a month.
Commitment:	3 months minimum.
Requirements:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Methodical approach • Interest in local history • Basic IT skills • Reasonable use of English Language
What's In It For You:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Opportunity to learn about local history. • Learn new skills. • Experience working as a member of a team. • Ongoing role specific training and induction. • Enhance the Visitor Experience through creative writing.
Why We Want You:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To help make local history information more accessible to the community.
Notes:	Requires independent work and use of external resources, some information and access to a computer can be provided within the museum, but work is mainly self-led
For more information, contact:	Volunteering Officer